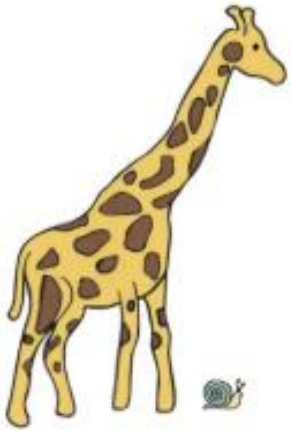
English

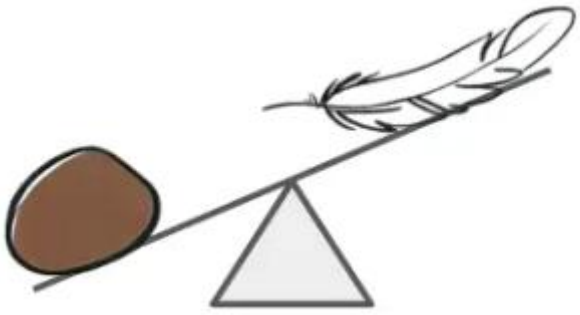
This week in English, our learning focus is the story Where the Wild Things Are. One of our activities involved reading a letter from a boy who had lost several items, including a hammer, a crown, a dog and a boat. The children worked together to predict who these missing items might belong to. They came up with some interesting ideas! The children were then given the exciting challenge of trying to find all of his missing objects.

Maths

This week in Maths, our focus has been on comparing quantities. The children explored the relationship between length and height and learned how to compare objects based on their mass and capacity.

What can you say about the giraffe and snail? Look at the balance. Which one is heavier, the stone or the feather?





Computing

In computing this week, children were introduced to early programming concepts using robots. Children explored using individual commands and identified what each command for the floor robot does and used that knowledge to start predicting the outcome of programs.

PE

This term in PE, we have a new topic - 'Winter Dance' (please check below for PE days).

The children will listen to winter themed music and will move in time to the music. They will begin by creating icicle shapes with their bodies and moving around in these shapes. Tasks will be done both independently and with a friend or group.

Outdoor stage area
We are planning on updating the stage in our outdoor area. Katie Hudson (a parent from Treefrogs and an amazing author/illustrator) has very kindly offered to paint the backdrop. If you would like to make a small donation to the cost of the wood for the backdrop (the total is £50) please give this to your child's class teacher. Thank you!

Have a fabulous and restful weekend!
