

Year One Home Learning Week 5 - 08.02.19

This week we have been continuing to look at the book 'The Wild Girl' and learning.....

* To write thought bubbles, showing what the wild girl is thinking in different scenes of the story.

* How to collect, organize and store data digitally

* Subtraction within 20 using a variety of resources

For home learning, you can.....

* use objects at home to create your own subtraction number sentences.

* Make a suitcase or backpack to take into the wilderness.

* Tell an adult what you would like to take into the wilderness if you were wild girl.

* <http://www.ictgames.com/mobilePage/bottleTakeAway/> - Practise subtracting numbers using this online game at home.

Phonics

In Sophie's group we have been learning the alternative pronunciation for /ie/ (thief and pie), /ow/ (cow, window). /ea/ (meat, bread) and reading tricky words water, through, where, thought, who, again, work, mouse.

In Sarah and Fiona's group this week we have been learning the alternative pronunciation for /c/ (cat, acid), /g/ (got, gin), /ey/ (money, they) and practicing our tricky words little, one, do, what, out. We have also been thinking about contractions- I'm (I am).

In Naomi's group we have been learning the alternative pronunciation for /o/ (both, pot), /i/ (find, thin).

In Leela's group we have been learning CCVC words (plum, snip, slug) and CCVCC words (plant, start, plank). We have also been practising writing phase 3 tricky words.

In Rez's group we have been writing short sentences with words including most of our phase 3 sounds and we have been learning tricky words such as 'what' and 'when'.

Have a fantastic and fun weekend!
