Re: Year 2 Freshwater Theatre Assembly

Dear Parents and Carers,

To support our class with learning about Traditional Tales, we have organised an assembly/workshop on 4th October which will be delivered by Freshwater Theatre.

The children will be led on a journey deep into the heart of Africa to discover How Anansi Became King of All the Stories and How the Zebra got his Stripes.

Meeting the famous 'trickster' Anansi, Year 2 will learn about the oral tradition and how these 'spider stories' have spread around the globe. They must then use all their cunning to help Anansi on his daring quest to outwit and capture the deadliest creatures in the jungle in order to claim the title 'King of all the Stories'!

This is an interactive session offering children ample opportunity to take on roles and engage in a variety of drama activities to bring these celebrated stories to life.

The assembly will be taking place at Kilmorie.

The cost of the workshop will be £2.70.

Yours faithfully,

Kate, Sarah and Shona
