Job Title:	ECT Class Teacher	Grade	Main Pay Scale
Reports to	Headteacher	Hours	Full Time

The Role

Are you a creative, innovative teacher who likes to think outside the box? If so, you may be the perfect candidate for our exciting and forward-thinking team.

Pupils at Kilmorie are confident, expressive and inquisitive young people who enjoy learning. The ideal candidate will be committed, enthusiastic and able to inspire our pupils, while steering their desire for learning in innovative ways.

Whilst we are initially looking for a KS1 or KS2 teacher, there may be opportunities for the right person to work across the whole school, we therefore welcome applicants from across the primary range and from all levels of experience (including Early Career Teachers). Please note, non-ECT candidates will be expected to lead a subject, if successful.

This role is for a September 2026 start.

Still interested? We would love to hear from you.

Who We Are

We are a local authority–maintained, three-form entry primary school with a strong reputation for both high standards and creativity, placing the whole child at the heart of everything we do. The Arts are central to children’s development at Kilmorie and are embedded across all areas of learning. We are committed to continuous improvement and are looking for ambitious professionals to help us move forward. In particular, we are keen to further develop children’s writing and welcome applications from candidates with a genuine passion for this area. We offer excellent professional development opportunities within an innovative, supportive and vibrant learning environment.

Our pupils are confident, expressive and inquisitive young people who enjoy learning. We are a highly committed and enthusiastic staff with high aspirations for ourselves and for our pupils.

What we can offer

- An inspirational, highly motivating learning community
- Consistent high-quality support for your professional development
- An exciting, motivated and committed staff team
- The opportunity to demonstrate your skills and develop your practice
- A supportive and ambitious leadership team
- A vibrant and continuously developing learning culture
